

House Beautiful
THE POWER OF PINK

The Power of Pink inspired more than 100 Chicago artists to create new works in honor of House Beautiful's March Issue. Chicago's Ravenswood ArtWalk, a non-profit organization that celebrates the talent and diversity of the artists in the Ravenswood corridor, hosted a multi-gallery Pink ArtWalk show. Sales from the pieces benefited the Ravenswood Elementary School's prestigious arts program.

House Beautiful's Kate Kelly Smith and Sean Sullivan flank Chicago Alderman Ameya Pawar, and RAW board member and artist Carolyn Bull.

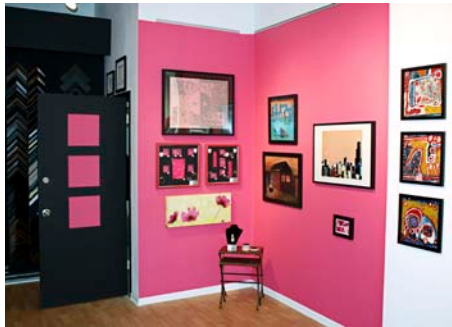

Artists, art lovers and supporters of Ravenswood Elementary School celebrated the success of the Pink ArtWalk at Architectural Artifacts.

Sunbrella's 50th Anniversary "Canvas Hot Pink" fabric decorated Ravenswood trees.

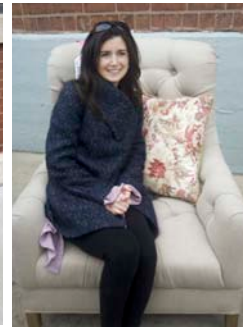

Color expert Michael Pacitti's seminar explored the many meanings and uses of pink in design and art.

Valspar's "Pink Burst" paint transformed the Blackbird Gallery into a passionately pink showcase for the art.

The lucky winner of Sunbrella fabric-covered Century chair.

Sitting pretty in the ARHAUS chair.

Everyone got into the spirit, including this young fan--(name tag: Floyd. Get it?).

RAVENSWOOD PINK WALK
 ravenwoodartwalk.org

From the more than 100 pieces shown at the Ravenswood Pink ArtWalk, a panel of judges from Ravenswood ArtWalk, Ravenswood Elementary School and House Beautiful had the difficult task of choosing these four pieces that best represented the spirit of the show. View all of the Ravenswood Pink ArtWalk on flickr.com/photos/housebeautiful.

Judy Jetson, Eat Your Heart Out!
 by Bobbie Bolociuch
 bobbieoc@sbcglobal.net

San Diego Memories Triptych Series(VIII, VI and XII)
 by Peter Bialecki
 peterbialecki.com

Ravenswood PinkWalk
 by Carolyn Bull
 CarolynBull.art@att.net

Mother
 by Scott Simons
 scootstudios.com